CAUSE OF SUICIDE UNKNOWN.

Young Girl Drowned Here in the Ohio at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Clara

Toler, aged 23, drowned herself in the Ohio at Lexington. She had just returned from a trip to an Oremersburg. She was a wife of James

Toler, the wealthiest land owner in Hancock county. The body has not been recovered. The cause of the suicide is unknown, although it is said a thorough investigation is to be made, with indications of sensational developments. Persons who saw the drowning say the girl walked out into the stream several times before she finally drowned herself.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Prosecutor Testified That He Sent Her a Package of Poison.

Owensboro, Ky., July 14.—The $200 breach of promise suit of Miss Miller

Miller against Will Berry, a young farmer, is on trial in circuit court.

Miller testified Wednesday that Berry sent her a package of rat poison and told her to take a spoonful of it in honor. Berry claims that he had understand that he was to marry

Miller. He says that she had taken a bottle of poison in her hand and said she would kill herself if he did not marry her.

THE DOYLE FUNERAL.

Handsome Floral Tributes Sent in Lexington For Mrs.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—The funeral of James Doyle, victim of a malarial fever, was held at the T. C. T. T. T. T. T.

Monday night, was held from the Calvary church. The remains were followed to the grave by hundreds of the city's friends. The flowers which covered the casket of the unfortunate man were the handsomest ever seen in this city in years. His friends contributed over $100 for floral designs.

Appointed Superintendent.

Versailles, Ky., July 14.—John R.

Patterson, appointed superintendent of the Louisville & Nashville & Atlantic city. Mr. Patterson is a native of this city. Mr. Patterson started at the L. & N. R. R. depot.

Justice of the Peace Willard Dean.

Mayfield, Ky., July 14.—J. P. Wilson, justice of the peace, died at his home near Paducah, of consumption. He was about 70 years of age and was a member of the Christian church. He was a native of Kentucky and was married to a native of Kentucky.

Summer at Hot Springs

For those who go to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the benefit of their health, the summer is really the best time. Her fortunate location, high up in the foothills of the Ozark mountains, induces a cool and delightful climate, and physicians are united in the opinion that the waters are more beneficial during the summer season.

New Berry Time.

Mrs. Joe Collins and Robt. Walker have opened a first-class feed and salar stable in the old Adams livery stable on Fifth street, and desire a share of patronage in this line. Persons who come in from the country want places to have their horses fed and groomed will do well to take them to this stable.

These gentlemen are in the market for good horses and persons having good horses to sell should see Collins and Walker. They also take horses and breakers or put them in good selling condition. Everybody knows what Robt Walker can do with a horse. The Collinses know

Massachusetts recognize the distinction of race, and in some instances of the public service position in getting together their superior aptitude for certain work. I have had entirely driven out the men, who are unable to com-

The highest salary paid by the government to a man is drawn by his military service. The latter is paid to all the Indian soldiers. She is a representative of the woman of color, which she excurses over the residence of the man's wife. The woman is already revolutionized, to a great extent, the system of management Miss Reel goes $2,000 a year, plus expenses. The latter is a considerable sum, inasmuch as she spends her time in traveling. She has to go from one school to another, illustrating every known means of teaching. She is frequently riding on horseback for hundreds of miles.

HUSBAND IN LITERARY WORLD

Ask for Check of Big Magazine with Intention of Keeping

The greatest bluffer in the literary game that I ever heard of," said a man in the company in the office of Big magazine, to a New York Sun reporter, "was a fellow who probably never wrote a line of literature. He was a man of some reason for wanting to make some money. He came into one office and offered me $500 bill and asked if we would

As a Profession.

One of the most remunerative callings in America is that of the window dresser. So much latitude is allowed the professional window dresser, that a guarantee is required on his engagement to secure the proprietor against careless or unskillful handling of any goods he may deal with. Heavy responsibilities rest upon the professional window dresser. His emoluments are large also, ranging from $2,000 to $5,000 a year.
